- 5.4 The title page, covers, format etc., should strictly conform in presentation as prescribed in appendix C and all copies of the thesis should carry a declaration by the candidate (appendix D) and a certificate by the supervisor (appendix E)
- 5.5 The candidate is expected to have published at least two papers in a refereed Standard Journal/s (NATIONAL/INTERNATIONAL) before submission of Synopsis.
- 5.6 The medium of presentation of the Thesis shall be English/Sanskrit (Devanagari Script)

6. Adjudication of Ph.D. Thesis

The Vice-Chancellor shall appoint a Board of Examiners for evaluation of thesis, consisting of the guide as the convener and two other external examiners from the panel of minimum six experts or maximum nine from reputed institutes suggested by the Guide for the candidate. At least four of them are to be from different parts of the country and couple of them preferably from foreign countries.

The two external examiners so appointed shall evaluate the thesis and send a report on the thesis in the prescribed proforma (Appendix F) to the Mahavidyalaya, along with a detailed report on the thesis. The controller of examinations will send the reports to the convener. The convener of the Board of Examinations shall submit a consolidated report on the thesis to the Mahavidyalaya.

If one of the two external examiners does not commend the thesis for the award of the degree, a third examiner, selected by the Vice Chancellor from the existing panel recommended by the guide, shall evaluate the thesis and if he/she also does not commend the thesis for the award of the degree, the registration of the candidate will be cancelled.

- (a) If two external examiners commend the thesis for the award of the degree, the candidate will be asked to appear for a Public Viva Voce examination.

V. Vijay Durga Prasad

- 4.2 Provisional registration for Ph.D. will be confirmed as confirmed registration only after successful completion of the methodology examination.
- 4.3 The candidate shall enclose the original communication of the Mahavidyalaya, as a proof of having passed the examination, at the time of submitting the thesis.
- 4.4 The candidates with M.Phil (with dissertation) or M.Litt (with dissertation) are exempted from taking written research methodology paper but will have to take the paper related to the subject of research. If the topic of research in Ph.D is a continuation of M.Phil dissertation the candidate shall be exempted from taking the paper related to the subject of research also.

5.0 Synopsis and thesis submission

- 5.1 Every candidate shall submit a synopsis (6 copies; each copy typically not exceeding 10 pages) of the proposed thesis through the guide, six months before the submission of the thesis, in the prescribed application form he/she need to submit one soft copy of the synopsis in single PDF file in a CD form. (appendix H).before submitting the synopsis the candidate has to appear for pre synopsis presentation where in faculty and students will be invited to understand the topic and for giving feedback for improvement if any. Once the panel feel the synopsis is in order they recommend for its submission.
- 5.2 The candidate shall submit five copies of the thesis, not earlier than three months after the submission of the Synopsis, in the prescribed application form and not later than six months after paying the prescribed fees along with a soft copy of the thesis in a single PDF file in a CD.
- 5.3 In case the candidate fails to submit the thesis (after submission of the synopsis) within the stipulated time, he/she has to resubmit the synopsis.

V. Vijay Anugrahasod

3.7 Change of topic of research:

A candidate shall select and furnish the research topic within the period of one year from the date of registration. If a change of topic becomes necessary, the candidate is permitted to change the topic already given up to a period of one year for full-time and two years for part-time from the date of registration. Whenever a candidate seeks permission for change of topic after the permissible period, he/she would be permitted to submit the thesis only after three years in the case of full-time and four years in the case of part-time candidates from the date of approval of the change of topic.

3.8 Change of guide:

If change of guide becomes necessary for any candidate, he/she may be permitted by the Vice Chancellor to change the guide on request from the candidate only once. The research scholar will be permitted to work and submit his / her thesis under the guidance of the same guide even after the retirement of the guide.

4.0 Course Work
