Description:

Krishna Janmashtami is an annual Hindu festival that praises the birth of Krishna, the eighth avatar of Vishnu. It is observed according to the Hindu lunisolar list, on the eighth day of the Krishna Paksha in Shraavana or Bhadrapad, which occurs simultaneously with August or September of the Gregorian list. It is a valuable celebration, especially in the Vaishnavism tradition of Hinduism. Dance-drama rulings of the life of Krishna according to the Bhagavata Purana, devotional singing through the midnight when Krishna was born, fasting, a night vigil, and a festival on the following day are a part of the Janmashtami celebrations. It is celebrated particularly in Mathura and Vrindavan, along with major Vaishnava.
